

Search for Shepherd Is Proceeding

SALMON, Idaho (AP) — The search turned to rugged mountain country today for a Leode ranch shepherd wanted in connection with the hit and run death of a Pocatello youth last Thursday.

Officers of the search is Vernon Frank Jones, 54. State police says Jones was believed to be driving the pickup that struck and killed Darrell Crowley, 17, on state highway 2 near Blue Dome in Clark County.

A warrant for Jones' arrest has been issued. State Trooper Elvin Albiston of Salmon said Jones rode into nearby mountains on horseback Saturday and the horse returned to Crowley's ranch.

Crowley, who had been working on an archaeological survey for Idaho State University, was struck as he walked along the highway.

Albiston said broken glass at the scene matched a damaged headlight on a pickup found on a nearby road.

Investigation indicated Jones was the driver.

Hurricanes Are No Threat To Land Area

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Dorothy, which started out as the season's first tropical storm, thrashed Atlantic waters today, top winds of 75 miles an hour while Ella, still a poorly organized tropical storm, drifted far to the south.

Weather forecasters said neither posed an immediate threat to any land area.

Dorothy remained almost stationary about 1,300 miles east of Bermuda. She was expected to move slowly to the north-northeast.

The Miami Weather Bureau said Dorothy's gales extended 325 miles to the north and 225 miles south of the center.

Chief forecasters Gordon Dunn said Dorothy was born Sunday night to the north.

Ella developed in the south-east of the Lesser Antilles. Her center was reported by the Juan Weather Bureau about 675 miles east of San Juan.

Ella's top winds — 50 miles an hour in squalls — were reported northwest at about 20 miles an hour. Forecasters said she likely would turn to the northwest and slow down.

Services Appear Set Tuesday For Actor

NEW YORK (AP) — A funeral service will be held Tuesday for actor Montgomery Clift.

Clift, 45, was stricken Saturday with a coronary caused by hanging, at the actress's home in his Manhattan apartment.

Born in Omaha, Neb., Clift started his acting career at age 13 in an amateur production in Saratoga, Fla. A year later he was on Broadway in "Fly Away Home" starring Thomas Mitchell. In all, Clift appeared in 13 Broadway plays.

Clift shunned the glamor of Hollywood, staying there only long enough to make a few movies. Among the 10 movies in which he starred he was nominated for an Academy Award in "The Search." "From Here to Eternity" and "A Place in the Sun." However, he never won an award.

Clift, who never married, is survived by his mother, Eliza Clift of New York City; a brother, Brooks, of Atlanta, Ga., and a sister, Ethel McGinnis of Austin, Tex.

Reservist Is Found Dead After Search

BARTSTOWN, Calif. (AP) — A California Army Reservist has been found dead of dehydration and exposure at the edge of Death Valley and 700 searchers peered the hunt for his companion.

The body of 2nd Lt. Arthur Rowland Jr., 25, Monrovia, Calif., was found Saturday night in mountains at the edge of the valley, Army spokesmen reported.

No traces were found of Spec. 4 Jeffrey Cullmore, 24, Bountiful, Utah, missing with Rowland since last Sunday on an apparent "rock-hunting" expedition from their summer training camp at Ft. Irwin.

Rowland's body was found four miles south of their abandoned out-of-gas Jeep. Medical spokesmen said he apparently had died of dehydration and exposure.

Rowland was a member of the Christian Church, said the Auxiliary, Post No. 3043. He was also a member of the Ladies Aid of the Christian Church and the Boy Scouts of America.

Surveyor I Bounces on Lunar Area

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor I bounced two to three inches when it touched down on the moon at a speed of several miles an hour June 1, a study of information radioed by the U.S. spacecraft showed Sunday.

Signals generated by strain gauges on the edges of the vehicle's three shock-absorber legs indicate all landed virtually at the same time on a horizontal surface, and the circular footpads rebounded clear of the surface before setting down.

The pressure after the craft came to rest was a pound per square inch, about the same that a space-suited astronaut would exert on the lunar surface.

Photographs televised by Survey show the two footpads visible to its camera dug into the soil about an inch, exerting a pressure of about eight pounds per square inch at impact.

The distance the eight-inch-diameter pads penetrated indicates the lunar soil has a bearing capacity of four to five pounds per square inch — enough to support the much larger pads of the 15-ton Apollo scheduled to land men on the moon by 1970.

General Is Missing on Air Flight

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — Brig. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell Jr., commander of the Army's Green Beret training camp, apparently missing on a flight to Honolulu, the Coast Guard indicated today.

Military sources here said Stilwell left San Francisco Saturday about 11:30 p.m. on a C-47. That is approximately the departure time of a royal Thai aircraft which is reported missing in the Pacific with three persons aboard.

The Coast Guard Search and Rescue Center said information it had indicated that Stilwell was aboard the missing plane. They said, however, this information was not definite.

They said they also presumed the plane had been ditched in the Pacific and they had launched a search for it.

The air traffic control center for the San Francisco Bay area said that only one C-47 had landed there.

T. F. Delegation To Attend Meet

A representative delegation from the Twin Falls congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will soon depart for the "God's Sons of Liberty" District Convention to be held Aug. 28 in Vancouver, B.C., according to R. V. Shaw, presiding minister.

Commenting on the convention, Shaw said, "We expect the program to stress the public Bible teaching program, the arrangement which we call door-to-door to interest people in allowing us to come into their homes for a hour each week to study their Bibles with them."

"Since many are unaware that Jehovah's Witnesses offer this service free of cost or obligation, it is anticipated that the convention may suggest ways of starting more of these home Bible studies in Twin Falls."

During the week of the delegation, the Twin Falls Kingdom Hall will be discontinued, Shaw added.

Motor Convoy To Highlight Summer Camp

A military motor convoy, the longest attempted since World War II, will be the highlight of the annual summer training for Army Reserve units in Utah and Idaho in early August.

More than 150 vehicles will be driven by 250 enlisted men and officers from Montpelier, Pocatello, Twin Falls and Burley, and from various cities in Utah.

The convoy will leave Osborn Hall at Fort Douglas, Utah, at 5 a.m. Friday and meet the Idaho portion in Bliss. It will then go on U.S. Highway 20 through Mountain Home, Boise, Baker and Portland, Ore., and then to Fort Lewis, Wash., 950 miles away.

The convoy will stop overnight in Mountain Home Air Force Base and at the Umatilla Army Depot, Hermiston, Ore.

According to Col. Richard F. Hill, Utah and Idaho Sector commander, this is the first time an operation of this size has been attempted by reserve units.

Col. Byron R. Rampton, commanding officer of the 6214th U.S. Army Garrison, has been named convoy director.

S. A. Kolman Lists Goals For Office

In a Friday statement S.-A. (Sy) Kolman, Democratic candidate for Twin Falls County prosecuting attorney, said, if elected, he will strive to enforce reciprocal child support laws.

Kolman said support of Idaho's reciprocal laws, while working with other states, is important for the purpose of seeing that young children receive the financial support necessary to subsist and grow into responsible young citizens. He said it is the responsibility of a child's natural parent to support him rather than have him become the object of charity.

Since beginning law practice at Twin Falls a year-and-a-half ago Kolman has served on the Twin Falls Committee for Improved City Water Supply; is chairman of the Young Democrats and the Magic Valley Alliance for Progress committee, and is a member of the Kiwanis and Elks clubs.

In outlining his platform, Kolman said, if elected, the prosecuting attorney's office will be staffed at all times during the week by an attorney, himself, or a deputy to assist residents of the county on legal matters which are in the jurisdiction of his office.

Kolman said his office will be operated at all times in an efficient and economical manner.

Kolman said he will pledge the utmost cooperation in assisting the county commissioners in carrying out the tasks of county government; will counsel county agencies and officials on legal matters, and will issue prompt legal opinions on matters properly brought to the attention of his office.

Kramer Notes

Legal Needs Of State

"In 1960 the Supreme Court of the State of Idaho ruled that the office of the Attorney General of Idaho was not constitutionally vested with any powers or duties that were immune to legislative change.

In that decision the Court gave agencies of the State of Idaho the right to hire their own attorneys and held in effect that the powers of the Attorney General were what the legislature proscribed."

This was a comment of Douglas Kramer, a candidate for State Senator from District 24, who complained in a prepared statement: "That state agencies in Boise are hiring a raft of attorneys from Boise at the expense of the taxpayer when in fact the Attorney General of this state together with his office should be the attorney for this state and all its agencies." Kramer said, "This is great for Boise lawyers but it is bad for taxpayers, and the legislature should provide by law that the Attorney General is the lawyer for the State of Idaho and all of its agencies.

The situation is ridiculous when one stops to think that the Land Board, which has the Attorney General of the State of Idaho as a member, then hires separate attorneys. The Land Board is composed of a majority of Democrats, so lawyers of that political persuasion have been hired to, in effect, represent the Attorney General of another political persuasion."

Kramer concluded, "When I am elected to the State Senate I will attempt to end this situation. In my opinion this is simply one more maneuver to flood tax dollars into Boise and away from the rest of the state.

We have a competent Attorney General in the man of Allen Shepard and he should be the legal officer of this state. I am sure that is what the voters thought when they elected him. All it takes is a well-written law passed by the legislature to correct it."

FAIR RETURNS
BOISE (AP) — The Western Idaho State Fair held its far west edition at its old grounds last year — but it will be back on them again for the Aug. 30-Sept. 3 run.

Fair officials had hoped to have new grounds — ready this year but they needed funds from sale of the old grounds and the old grounds have not been sold.
Development of a major shopping center on the property has been proposed by the Harry D. Co. Development Co. and the Pacific Railroad has not interested in buying the property.

YOUTH DIES
PLEASANT VIEW, Idaho (AP) — A Tacoma, Wash.,

Killed was Bill Robert Takekura, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Takekura, 4118 118th SW, Tacoma. The boy and his parents were visiting at the Glen Blossom ranch here.
Officers said Takekura was leaning over to start a tractor when a 22-caliber pistol in a holster around his shoulder slipped. He grabbed for it and the gun discharged, shooting him just below the heart. Officers said the boy ran about 45 feet before he died.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, July 25 — Born to day, you are generally quiet insofar as external appearances are concerned, but you are in a state of inner turmoil that leaves you emotionally, though silently, spent at the end of a day. If you were wise, you would learn to vent your steam in harmless ways — through exercise or some hobby that required forceful action and decisive thinking. As it is, you are liable to go weeks or even months clocking up inside yourself, presenting a tranquil nature to the world — a nature that is truly a mask and which must ultimately give way.

Because of your quiet, then eruptive temperament, your personal relationships are likely to have to survive more or less frequent periods of storm and stress. Yet those who know you well and appreciate your fine qualities of loyalty and affection should be quite willing to forgive you your moments when you are inclined to run roughshod over their feelings. One thing they know: Your intentions are good.

Because your mind is exceedingly active even during those periods when you would seem to be almost completely unmentally, you need the stimulation of work. Nothing is more distressing to feed on — and no food for thought available — to find what is in store for tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Tuesday, July 26 — LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Disrupting influences may make your task more difficult than usual today. Accept whatever assistance is offered.

WIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Minor details of yesterday may become major ones today. Take care that you don't overlook small, previously-unimportant things.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Coordinate the various phases of your workday by good planning. Once you have a schedule worked out, stick to it for success.

Others may have opinions that differ from yours. The wise Scorpio will accept the fact and buck the opposition tactfully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — This is no day for giving up on a present project. Recent setbacks are no real indication of success to come.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) — Charly begins at home. Do what you can for others, but save the major portion of your energy and good will for family members.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — The wise Aquarius will make an effort to leave a strong impression of himself. Let others see what you're really like.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — You should be able to lay the cornerstone for success in a major undertaking today. Time spent planning now is well worth the effort.

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — No day for falling asleep at the switch. Keep alert both mentally and physically, and you should be able to move ahead of the crowd.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — A flood of morning-frustrations should not be allowed to spoil the whole day. There is much to gain for the Taurus who takes setbacks in stride.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Take care that you don't say anything in the heat of argument that you will be sorry for later. Forgiveness may be hard come by these days.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Deception is your worst curiosity today. The wise Cancer will tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

2 Students Get Grants

Two Magic Valley students have been granted $1,500 scholarships for further study in library science, it was announced Saturday by Margaret Hansen, M. Smith, Pocatello, chairman of the Idaho State Library Board.

Marjorie S. Aley, Kimberly, will be graduated from Idaho State University in Pocatello, in August with a B.A. degree in English. She expects to begin her graduate studies in library science at the University of Denver in September.

Jeanna Flowers, Ketchikan, a recipient last year, is now employed as an assistant at the Twin Falls Public Library.

Reds Fire Record Missiles in War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. spokesman said Sunday the Communists fired a record 60 surface-to-air missiles last week at American warplanes raiding North Viet Nam. On July 18 alone the Reds fired 28 of the radar-guided missiles.
The Air Force does not disclose individual figures by the Russian-made SAMs. But it has given out figures indicating that the missile average is only one kill for every 25 fired.

Mills has served two terms as Lincoln County Representative and is a farmer in North Shoshone. Cenarrusa is a sheepman in the Carey Valley.

WARD MILLS ... is opposing each other for the Republican nomination for State Representative in District 21A. The newly-created district includes Blaine, Lincoln and four precincts in Minidoka County. Cenarrusa has served the past 18 years in the legislature and four as Speaker of the House. Mills has served two terms as Lincoln County Representative and is a farmer in North Shoshone. Cenarrusa is a sheepman in the Carey Valley.

Cenarrusa, Mills Seek GOP Bid for District 21 Post

Voters in Legislative District 21, A, Blaine, Lincoln and four precincts in Minidoka County, are to elect a representative for the Republican nomination for state representative.
Seeking the right to represent their party after the Aug. 2 primary are Pete Cenarrusa, Carey sheepman and speaker of the house the past four years, and Ward Mills, North Shoshone farmer who has served two terms as Lincoln County representative.

Cenarrusa, known as the "flying" legislator, uses his airplane to keep in touch with business interests in Carey. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cenarrusa, who are now retired and live in Halley, are pioneer residents of Carey Valley.

The speaker of the house feels that legislators must reassert their traditional position as an independent and important branch of the government, the branch closest to the people.

"We have provided the executive to represent the state, in all formal and political events, and to keep his name and face, and his ideas, constantly before the people. We have allowed none of these to be followed by the members of the legislature, and only in brief periods of the session is the general public even remotely aware of the role that the legislature must play. And yet, only with the elected representatives of the people, meeting in open and public session, can the desires, hopes, wishes and ambitions of the people be expressed in one representative type of government (a republic)."

"We also see, at least on the federal level, stirrings of probably the most vicious type of government that can be imagined: that of the oligarchy of the judiciary with their insistence that only they can truly determine the proper course of events."

There are those who say that the legislative branch is going to wither away and die, and administrators will rule the world. I disagree with this concept, even as an idea.

"We must do all we can to strengthen the legislative branch. The legislature must also have methods of securing information independent of the executive on a constant basis," he said.

During the 37th session the Idaho Legislature took steps toward equipping itself with sources of information independent of the executive. The Legislative Council was created and now provides a legislative-research, bill drafting, and fiscal analysis staff performing services for the legislature and legislators.

"I agree that the executive branch must be called upon from time to time to furnish information to the legislature, but we must have an independent source of information," he said.

Cenarrusa is chairman of the Legislative council subcommittee on state government organization.

Cenarrusa believes that administration should be left to the legislature, which is directly responsible to the people. The legislative must not delegate its authority to make policy to the executive branch.

Mills served two terms, four years, as Lincoln County representative. During his first term he was on the Health and Welfare Committee, Agricultural Affairs and Economic Affairs Committees.

During the last term he was on the Agricultural Affairs Committee and chairman of the Economics Affairs Committee. Mills is a member of the Farm Bureau, the Grange and Shoshone Chapter of the Optimist Club. He farms in North Shoshone area.

Area Youths Will Attend YMCA Meet

Five Magic Valley high school boys will be selected to attend the YMCA's Pacific Northwest Area High School Leadership Conference, Aug. 21-28, according to Ernie Marlow, YMCA Program Committee.

The conference will be held at the Salem, Oregon YMCA's Camp Silver Creek, located at Silver Creek Falls State Park in Sublimity, Oregon.

Carl Munson, Attendance Coordinator of the Seattle, Washington public schools, will be the Training Director. Under the guidance of Munson, the high school boys and girls from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska will learn about elements of successful leadership. "What are my ideas got picked up?" What is leadership and whose responsibility is it in our school? "How does our group really make decisions?" "What is effective Program Planning?"

In evening sessions conference delegates discuss such questions as Viet Nam, the draft, education, preparation for marriage, how my values stack up, and others that are of prime concern to today's high school students.

Interested high school students must have completed the ninth grade and be attending one of the Magic Valley High Schools this fall. Local Y members will have first priority, but non Y-Members may attend if space permits.

The local delegation will travel by car to the Conference with Chet Bartlett, local Y executive or one of the local club advisors.

Cost of the Conference is approximately $75.00 total. High school boys or their parents may call Chet Bartlett for additional information or registration blanks. Deadline for sign-up is August 2nd.

Parade Costly

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Warsaw's military parade Friday was not only colorful and spectacular, it was very expensive, the visiting mayor of Toronto, Philip G. Givling told a reporter Sunday. Tanks in the parade tore up the pavement with their treads and "they ever did to my asphalt roads in Toronto what they did to those here, I would kill the minister of war," he said.

Valley Miss, Britton Wed in July Ceremony

FILER—The Immanuel Lutheran Church, Twin Falls, was the setting for the July 10 wedding which united in marriage Jean Mathiesen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mathiesen, and Ken Britton, son of Mrs. Guy Kinyon, Castleford, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rayburn, Twin Falls.

Rev. Harold Iken officiated at the ceremony and vows were spoken before the altar centered with an arrangement of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and blue delphinium. The altar was flanked by large baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and spiral candelabra holding white tapers and decorated with white flowers. Blue satin bows marked the bride's aisle.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon organza over taffeta. The gown, fashioned in princess lines, featured lace, edged lily point sleeves, a scooped neckline and lace insets at the side. The gown flowed into a chapel train in the back.

The bride's headpiece of folded petals of organza, enhanced with lilies of the Valley, and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion net. She carried a tapered bouquet of pink lilies, roses and stephanotis.

Patricia Dierker, Filer, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Cathy Mohlenhoff, Stateline, N. Y., and Mary Danielson, Emmet, college roommates of the bride.

The tapers were lighted by Debbie Mathiesen, Twin Falls, and Lisa Kinyon, Castleford.

Richard Kelley was best man and Joseph Allison and Richard Parrott were ushers.

Lois Werner, Jerome, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Howard Kaster, Idaho Falls, soloist.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall. Karen Sasser, Portland, Ore., registered the guests and Karen Kaster, county of the bride, and Mrs. Edna

Writer Says Jewels Reflect Personality

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Your jewels speak for you. They catch the eye and hold it, please it or bother it. Yet most women don't plan ahead for their costume jewelry. They "impulse buy."

Steven Brady, who creates the nationally famous Cadara jewels, suggests you ask yourself these questions before you buy costume jewelry:

Is this an attention-caller or will it really enhance my looks? Does it whisper a message from me to the public or does it shriek for attention? Is it amusing—a conversation piece?

Will it become part of my wardrobe and have a long-range life of do I want it to show I'm fun-loving and "with it"?

According to Brady, who for summer introduced raffia jewelry for the seaside and palm, as well as the popular candy jewelry for the seaside and palm, such as the shell chosen by the Duchess of Windsor, and wear the late Lt. Poverty Is Chic Among Fashionables

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite the government's antipoverty program, poverty continues to be very chic among the fashionables.

Although no girl snubs milk if she can get it, her wardrobe simply is not complete without patches, poor boy sweaters, and jeans in red, green, yellow, wheat, as well as blue.

Throughout the week more than 200 fashion writers here for fall collection previews arranged for the New York couture group have seen the poor boy sweater—a vertical ribbed knit, short sleeved, ring necked style—grown to all lengths.

It has grown into full length downy ponies, thigh high slouch dresses, and has even devolved down its skirt middle to become

Improvements For Burley Discussed

BURLEY—Chamber of Commerce members, service club representatives, Mayor Joe Peters and city councilmen met Thursday at the Ponderosa Inn to discuss ways of improving Burley.

An overnight trailer parking area was discussed. It was noted many travelers today have their own trailer house, and overnight parking is all that is wanted.

Merchants agree that streets should be washed and swept before 6 a.m. as they are presently being done. City councilmen and the mayor stated the street cleaning would be taken up at the city council meeting.

Alleys in the downtown area were discussed and it was suggested that restaurants, cafes and bars put their garbage in containers up off the ground. Improving the school system was discussed. William Parsons pointed out that the school districts need to be reappointed, and this is a nation wide problem. It was reported that the Cassin County School board is studying the reappointment of districts.

Wendy Hollinger reported that a new highway sign was being installed east of town on Interstate 80 and an identical sign will be put up a few days five miles west of Burley.

Mayor Peters reported that additional buildings to house trucks and equipment soon will be built on the west end of the present shop garage. It was reported that in the last few weeks 84 blocks which equal 9 1/4 miles have been seal coated in the city limits.

Snow and ice on the streets in the winter was discussed and it was agreed that snow should be moved to the center and removed and the intersections should be salted and sanded before the traffic begins to pack the snow and ice.

Better lighting in the alleys behind the stores was suggested, and building a cover over the swimming pool for use the year around was discussed.

Improvements in the last few months were reported. The fence around the baseball field has been painted, excess junk in the alleys has been picked up and 3/4 inch water line has been replaced with eight-inch pipe water line.

New fire hydrants have been installed, street lights have been installed the full length of 16th Street and a new large fountain light has arrived for West Park and will be installed soon.

The meeting was the second in a series of meetings planned under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce. The round table discussion was conducted by Ed Elliott, president of Chamber of Commerce.

4-H Club to Purchase Shirts

The Happy Shamrocks 4-H Club met Friday at the home of its president, Connie Nielsen. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was discussed and approved that members purchase white, long-sleeved, sweat shirts with the 4-H emblem to wear at the Twin Falls County Fair. The club will also purchase a scrapbook.

It was announced that Achievement Day will be held Friday at the fairgrounds in Filer. All members are urged to attend.

Refreshments were served to the members and their visiting mothers by Connie Nielsen. The next meeting will be held Aug. 8.

DOUGLAS D. KRAMER

JOHN M. BARKER

Kramer, Barker Work for GOP Senate Nomination

Douglas D. Kramer and John M. Barker, Buhl, candidates for State Senator in district 24, are vying for the one slot on the Republican ticket in the November general election. Both said they are putting forth every effort to win in the Aug. 2 primary election.

Kramer, 41, Route 1, was born and raised at Fairfield. He said he served in the United States Navy in the Pacific and Far East during World War II. He later was graduated from the University of Idaho with a BA degree in political science and a LL.B. in law. He started his law practice in Buhl, and has practiced in Buhl and Twin Falls for the past 15 years.

Barker, 49, said he was born and raised in Twin Falls County. He was graduated from Buhl High School and is a graduate of the University of Idaho school of business. He owns and manages beef cattle operations and has farm interests in the county.

For the past 27 years Barker said he has owned an independent insurance and real estate agency. Kramer said he has been active in civic affairs and in his church. Music Teacher Resigns From Shoshone Post

SHOSHONE — Richard Radford resigned as Shoshone school music instructor last week, according to school officials.

Superintendent Kenneth Crothers stated that contact has been made with prospective teachers to fill the posts.

Prospects Brighten for Trade Talks

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prospects for the Kennedy round of world trade talks brightened Sunday as ministers of the six European Common Market nations hammered out agreement on completing a single farm policy.

After haggling for 13 hours, the ministers signed an accord as dawn broke over Brussels. The package deal, which has been a point of dispute for months, will pool the farm interests of the six partners — France, West Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

In completing their single farm policy, the six finally agreed on market organizations for their most controversial commodities — fruits and vegetables, dairy products and sugar.

Final agreement was delayed by a dispute between Italy and Holland over fruit and vegetables. Italy, the Common Market's biggest producer of fruit and vegetables, wanted heavy protection. It demanded automatic rebates, paid out of the common fund, to compete with exports of fresh and canned fruits and juices from the United States and other countries. Holland claimed such a move would result in a price war in fruits and vegetables.

Miner Tries To Describe Explosion

MOUNT HOPE, W.Va. (AP) — "The explosion was almost impossible to describe. It knocked me off my feet. We were lucky to get out, but when the mine reopened I'll be there."

With those words Hugh Garrett, 30, described the underground gas explosion at the Six Six mine of New River Co. that killed seven miners here Saturday.

Two miners, one in serious condition, remain in Oak Hill Hospital near this small southern West Virginia community.

An investigation of the cause of the explosion was to begin today with United Mine Workers, company, federal and state representatives participating.

After the underground investigation, an official hearing will be conducted, and if all is satisfactory the mine will be reopened.

Several rescue workers were overcome by smoke and noxious fumes Saturday but were released after hospital treatment.

Some 20 other miners were working below at the time of the explosion. Most of them ran to the surface while others nearer the blast barricaded themselves against falling slate and fumes and then escaped.

Government Takes Control In Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A new government took control today of this politically and economically shattered nation with Lt. Gen. Suharto, the army's strong man, in firm control.

The new government left President Sukarno in an even more isolated position, cut off almost completely from any real power. The new 23-member cabinet replaces one of 100 members that Sukarno easily manipulated.

Suharto, 48, made himself chairman of the new Cabinet and defense minister and kept his post as army chief. Besides him he kept the two civilians he named shortly after assuming power in March.

Foreign Minister Adam Malik was named to take charge of political affairs.

Sultan Hamengku Buwono remains as minister in charge of economy and finance.

Suharto also heads a new five-man presidium with Malik, Buwono, First Minister Idrus Chail in charge of people's welfare and Sanusi Hartawati, minister of industry and development.

Farm Deaths and Costs Are Noted by Safety Committee

Every 10 minutes in the United States two persons are killed and 194 injured as a result of accidents. Cost to the American public of these accidents is approximately $320,000. One hundred five thousand persons died as a result of accidents in the United States last year. In addition to those who died approximately 10 and one-half million suffered injuries serious enough to restrict their activities for one or more days. This was the 1965 national accident picture according to Howard Tankersley, Secretary Idaho Farm Safety Committee.

According to the National Safety Council's statistics the United States has a ratio of about 98 non-fatal accidents for every fatality. These non-fatal accidents are those which result in injury producing some temporary or permanent impairment in the victim. The ratio for farm accidents is much higher, approximately 300 ac-

Safety Committee, the lesson is painfully clear, "the only real way to reduce this annual accident toll is to develop in our farm workers and farm families a reverence for life. Each person must develop in himself the attitude and the ability to 'think safety.' This means developing the habit of analyzing whatever job one is performing for the inherent hazards and then determining what can be done to avoid them."

Mrs. Heinrich stated further, "this simple reverence for life

Obesity: frequently a result of glandular malfunction. Most cases of obesity rest upon a basis of disturbed metabolism. This may take the form of improper digestion.

In such cases the digestive system fails in its function of breaking down the food; or there can be glandular malfunction — an insufficient thyroid secretion of thyroxine, the substance that burns fats and sugars to convert them into energy. Sometimes the pituitary gland is at fault. Improper functioning of the digestive system, of the thyroid gland or of the pituitary glands all have common cause, which the original trouble can be traced to some impingement of the nerve supply to one or two or all of them.

Your Doctor of Chiropractic directs his work to the restoration of a normal flow of vital energy, true the nerves and gradually reverses the bodily metabolism. At the same time he will want to adjust the food intake. Improvements For Burley Discussed

BURLEY—Chamber of Commerce members, service representatives, Mayor Joe Peters and city councilmen met Thursday at the Ponderosa Inn to discuss ways of improving Burley.

An overnight trailer parking area was discussed. It was noted many travelers today have their own trailer house, and overnight parking is all that is needed.

Merchants agreed that streets should be washed and swept before 8 a.m. as they are presently being done. City councilmen and the mayor stated the street cleaning would be taken up at the city council meeting.

Alleys in the downtown area were discussed and it was suggested that restaurants, cafes and bars put their garbage in containers up off the ground.

Improving the school system was discussed. William Parsons pointed out that the school districts need to be reapportioned, and this is a nation wide problem. It was reported that the Cassia County School board is studying the reapportionment of districts.

Lloyd Hollinger reported that a new highway sign reading "Welcome to Burley" has been installed east of town on Interstate 80 and an identical sign will be put up in a few days five miles west of town.

Mayor Peters reported that additional buildings to house trucks and equipment soon will be built on the west end of the present shop garage. It was reported that in the last few weeks 84 blocks which equal 3 1/2 miles have been seal coated in the city limits.

Snow and ice on the streets in the winter was discussed and it was agreed that snow should be moved to the center and removed and the intersections should be sealed and sanded before the traffic begins to pack the snow and ice.

Better lighting in the alleys behind the stores was suggested, and building a cover over the swimming pool for use the year around was discussed.

Improvements in the last few months were reported. The fence around the baseball field has been painted, excess junk in the alleys has been picked up, and 3/4 inch water line has been replaced with eight-inch pipe water line.

New fire hydrants have been installed, street lights have been installed the full length of 10th Street and a new large fountain light has arrived for West Park and will be installed soon.

The meeting was the second in a series of meetings planned under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce. The round table discussion was conducted by Ed Elliott, president of Chamber of Commerce.

Prospects Brighten for Trade Talks

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prospects for the Kennedy round of world trade talks brightened Sunday as ministers of the six European Common Market nations hammered out agreement on completing a single farm policy.

After haggling for 13 hours, the ministers signed an accord as dawn broke over Brussels. The package deal, which has been a point of dispute for months, will pool the farm interests of the six partners — France, West Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

In completing their signal farm policy, the six finally agreed on market organizations for their most controversial commodities: fruits and vegetables, dairy products and sugar.

Final agreement was delayed by a dispute between Italy and Holland over fruit and vegetables.

Italy, the Common Market's biggest producer of fruit and vegetables, wanted heavy protection. It demanded automatic rebates, paid out of the common fund, to compete with exports of fresh and canned fruits and juices from the United States and other countries. Holland claimed such a move would result in a price war in fruits and vegetables.

Miner Tries To Describe Explosion

MOUNT HOPE, W.Va. (AP) — "The explosion was almost impossible to describe. It knocked me off my feet. We were lucky to get out, but when the mine reopened I'll be there."

With those words Hugh Garrett, 50, described the underground gas explosion at the Silk mine of New River Co. that killed seven miners here Saturday.

Two miners, one in serious condition, remain in Oak Hill Hospital near this small southern West Virginia community.

An investigation of the cause of the explosion was to begin today with United Mine Workers, company, federal and state representatives participating.

After the underground investigation, an official hearing will be conducted, and if all is satisfactory the mine will be reopened.

Several rescue workers were overcome by smoke and noxious fumes Saturday but were released after hospital treatment.

Some 20 other miners were working below at the time of the explosion. Most of them ran for the surface while others nearer the blast barricaded themselves against falling slate and fumes and then escaped.

Government Takes Control In Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A new government took control today of this politically and economically shattered nation, with Lt. Gen. Suharto, the army's strong man, in firm control.

The new government left President Sukarno in an even more isolated position, cut off almost completely from any power.

The new 22-member cabinet replaces one of 100 members that Sukarno easily manipulated.

Suharto, 46, made himself chairman of the new Cabinet and defense minister and kept his post as army chief. Beside him he kept the two civilians he named—shortly after assuming power in March.

Foreign Minister Adam Malik was named to take charge of political affairs.

Sultan Hamengku Buwono remains as minister in charge of economy and finance.

Suharto also heads a new five-man presidium with Malik, Buwono, First Minister Idrus Chuli in charge of people's welfare and Sanusi Harjadinata, minister of industry and development.

Farm Deaths and Costs Are Noted by Safety Committee

Every 10 minutes in the United States two persons are killed and 194 injured as a result of accidents. Cost to the American public of these accidents is approximately $200,000,000. One hundred five thousand persons died as a result of accidents in the United States last year. In addition to those who died approximately 10 and one-half million suffered injuries serious enough to restrict their activities for one or more days. This was the 1965 national accident picture according to Howard Tankersley, Secretary Idaho Farm Safety Committee.

According to the National Safety Council's statistics the United States has a ratio of about 25 nonfatal accidents for every fatality. These nonfatal accidents are those which result in injury producing some temporary or permanent impairment in the victim. The ratio for farm accidents is much higher, approximately 200 accidents for each fatality.

The accident rate on our nation's and Idaho's farms makes farming the third most hazardous occupation nationally and the second most hazardous in Idaho.

Idaho averages about 26 deaths and 6,000 injuries restricting activities on farms each year. The average cost of Idaho farm accidents is about $600. This means that farm accidents in Idaho bear a price tag of approximately $4,000,000 annually. These are real, not fanciful, costs. This $4,000,000 includes costs of wage loss, labor replacement, medical expense, and property damage. It does not include an assignment of value for insurance overhead or an estimate of crop loss value due to incapacitation during planting or harvest seasons.

According to Mrs. Adolf Heinrich, Chairman Idaho Farm Safety Committee, the lesson is painfully clear, "the only real way to reduce this annual accident toll is to develop in our farm workers and farm families a reverence for life. Each person must develop in himself the attitude and the ability to 'think safety.' This means developing the habit of analyzing whatever job one is performing for the inherent hazards and then determining what can be done to avoid them."

can help to reduce the 105,000 death toll and the 17 and one-half billion dollar U. S. investment in accidents each year. It is the moral obligation of each farm worker and farm resident. July 24-30 is National Farm Safety Week, a week each farm family should devote to making farming a safer occupation.

Mrs. Heinrich stated further, "this simple reverence for life can help to reduce the 105,000 death toll and the 17 and one-half billion dollar U. S. investment in accidents each year. It is the moral obligation of each farm worker and farm resident. July 24-30 is National Farm Safety Week, a week each farm family should devote to making farming a safer occupation."

Barn Destroyed In Shoshone Fire

SHOSHONE—Fire destroyed a barn and chicken house at the Robert Cisco farm northwest of the city at about 3:45 p.m. Friday.

The fire, which is believed caused by faulty wiring, also destroyed grain that was in the barn and 26 chickens.

Fire trucks from Shoshone kept the fire from spreading to other parts of the corral. Damage was estimated at about $2,000.

Clay Hints London May Put up Fight
LONDON, (AP)—Cassius Clay, yawning after only five hours of sleep, met newsmen 500 feet above misty London Sunday and predicted: "Brian London would be harder to floor than Henry Cooper."

But London, who meets Clay in a 15-round heavyweight title bout at Earl's Court Aug. 6, was not there to hear the prediction. He was busy training.

Clay battered Cooper to a blood-spattered mess in six rounds last May. "But I'm not kidding myself. It will be easy to beat London," Clay said. "Anything can happen in a title fight."

"Sometimes champions don't train like they should because everything looks rosy. That's what happened to Sonny Liston."

Clay, who flew in from New York late Saturday night, ran in Hyde Park at 8 a.m. before sitting down to an 8:30 breakfast.

Clay said in the last few weeks he had been resting and had only gone about 12 rounds in training.

"I haven't trained as much as I should," he said.

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Al Geiberger, a long drink of ice water from California, coolly braked an impending early collapse with two mighty birdie putts Sunday and then ran away to a record four-stroke victory in the golden anniversary Professional Golfers Association Championship. Refusing to be shaken by three bogeys on the first four holes, the 28-year-old stringbean with the penchant for peanut butter-and-jelly sandwiches finished with a 72 for 289, even par for 72 holes over the back-breaking par 70 Firestone Country Club course.

Runner-up was Dudley Wysong, 27-year-old son of a McKinney, Tex., doctor, who once moved within two shots of the lead but could never close the gap. Wysong had to birdie the 17th for a final 72 and 284.

Strung out in the rear of the first 30-1 shots were the greatest names in pro golf, including pre-tournament favorites Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, who never got their thunderbolt games in the grove.

Palmer mustered one of his familiar late charges with a final 68, matching the best round of the day, but that put him at 287, seven shots back of the poised young champion.

Nicklaus, the reigning Masters and British Open champion, never harnessed his awesome power and settled for a 71 and 292.

Palmer paid the new champion a rare tribute. "He has an ideal temperament for this kind of course—he plays the same pace all the time. He doesn't get fired up and he doesn't panic," Palmer said.

Wysong was the only player in the original field of 165 able to match the 35-35-70 par of the rugged, sun-baked Firestone course, long and demanding and called by Gary Player "the toughest in the world."

Player, the Little South African bidding for his second PGA title, fought a frustrating battle with sand traps. "I thought I was in the Sahara Desert," he said—and finished with a 75 for 286. He tied Bill Casper, the new U.S. Open title-holder, and

Castro Plans To Make Rare Appearance

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro will make one of his rare "appearances" Tuesday to deliver a major policy speech on the 13th anniversary of the start of his revolution, which overthrew President Fulgencio Batista.

The Communist government also will stage a gigantic parade and military show.

Except for brief appearances, Castro has remained out of the limelight since May 1. This has led to speculation outside Cuba that he is relinquishing his power.

Western diplomats here do not think Castro is giving up any of his powers.

Reports have been heard in Havana's revolutionary plaza that he is expected to cover a wide range of topics and an informant said it is possible one subject may be direct Cuban involvement in the Vietnam war.

Castro will offer to send a contingent of Cuban troops to fight on the side of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Communists. The government-controlled Cuban press has been hinting at this for the past several weeks.

New Concept In Parks Is Inaugurated

SPALDING, Idaho (AP) — A new concept in national parks was inaugurated Sunday as the state transferred lands to the National Park Service and formed the first two links in the chain of 22 sites which will be the new Perce National Historical Park.

Of the 22 sites, four will be federal property and the other 18 will remain in the hands of their owners. The first two federal sites are the 14-acre Spalding Memorial State Park and the 3-acre Lewis & Clark Camp State Park. Both are located in the north central Idaho woods through which Lewis and Clark traveled.

Western and state officials praised the work of the area citizens in the creation of the concept of an historical park composed of small, separate sites maintained for their historic values rather than huge tracts of land whose value is primarily recreational and aesthetic.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Theodore H. Little of Clarkston, president of the Spalding Museum Foundation, presented the title to Edward A. Hummel, regional director of the National Park Service.

U.S. Economy Highlighted By Several Factors in 1966

WASHINGTON (AP) — Booming economy, relatively low unemployment, rising incomes and prices — and the inflation which goes with them — highlighted the nation's economic picture during the first half of this year.

Soft spots did develop in the economy — the housing industry and automobile sales were two — but the economic indicators published by the federal government showed that the first half of 1966 was a banner year for most Americans generally, although the banner cost more than it did last year.

There was even talk that inside and outside government — especially in the first three months of the year — the boom getting out of hand and the possible need for a tax increase to dampen inflation.

But most of the talk in favor of an increase was outside government, and the Johnson administration adopted a wait-and-see position. Economic growth slowed during the second quarter of the year to what officials consider a more sustained pace.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie and Theodore H. Little of Clarkston, president of the Spalding Museum Foundation, presented the title to Edward A. Hummel, regional director of the National Park Service.

Success

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Milwaukee's new mayor, Frank S. Sarno, has received a reputation to uphold, and the firefighters in suburban Germantown have a fire station to support.

The department's 59th annual fund-raising picnic Sunday was evidently a success. Germantown firefighters, who are paid by the city, drank about 4,000 gallons of beer.

Of the $17.9-billion increase during the last three months of 1965, only $3.8 billion or 20 percent reflected price changes, the Commerce Department said.

Price increases accounted for $6.5 billion — 69 percent of the rise in GNP.

Consumer Price Index — The index, by June, had risen 1.7 points in the Labor Department's index was the largest in eight years. The June index reading was 71.2 million last January.

T. F. Prosecuting Attorney Bid Sought by 2 Republicans

Michael H. Felton, attorney at law, and Robert W. Galley, attorney at law, are the two Republican candidates seeking the Republican nomination for Twin Falls Prosecuting Attorney in the Aug. 2 primary election.

Galley was reared at Rigby and during the Korean war served with the United States Air Force. He was a police officer. He graduated from Idaho State University in 1961 with a BA Degree in Business Administration. He was employed by the Idaho State Police for two years as a clerk under Justice C. J. Taylor. He and his wife have three children.

Felton grew up in the Moscow area and has been a life long resident of Idaho. He attended University of Idaho where he gained a BS Degree in accounting in 1962.

After receiving his BA, Felton continued at the university and received his law degree from the University of Idaho Law School in 1965. Felton served one year as Latah County Justice of the Peace. He is married and has one son.

Felton said he is running for office because he feels he can do more for the people of Twin Falls than he could as a prosecutor.

Candidate Notes Six Major Interests Among Area Voters

BUHL — John M. Barker, 24, Republican candidate for state senator from District 21, reports six items seem to hold major interest among voters of his district.

Barker, opposed during the primary election by Douglas D. Kramer, Twin Falls, conducted a poll by mail, and reports about two-thirds response from the voters.

Of main importance to voters was conservation of water. Barker has served nine years as state director and is current vice president of the American Falls Reservoir District.

This is the group, he said, which has bought this supply of storage water for Twin Falls County and which is now working to "protect the interest of farmers if rehabilitation is needed in the American Falls Dam."

He reports the group is cooperating with the Bureau of Reclamation in the matter and that water which is badly needed on the Salmon River.

Chief of a second concern of voters, building down inflation on the state government level. Barker said he felt additional appropriations were needed by many departments of the state government, schools and colleges.

"We should," he said, "be getting a full dollar's worth of service from each tax dollar paid by the citizen."

If economy is practiced in each branch during the next biennium, normal growth of tax receipts ought to take care of any increase of general fund without additional funds of taxes or raising any rates," he declared.

Pros and cons of the sales tax ranked equally with inflation in Barker's poll. Barker showed a nearly even sentiment on the issue.

Barker said the sales tax referendum should solve the question, but "personally, I shall vote to retain the sales tax because I don't know where we would raise the additional $20 million if we don't have the sales tax."

Barker said he could not visualize "how the general fund would be increased during the primary election by Douglas D. Kramer, Twin Falls, conducted a poll by mail, and reports about two-thirds response from the voters."

Of main importance to voters was conservation of water. Barker has served nine years as state director and is current vice president of the American Falls Reservoir District.

This is the group, he said, which has bought this supply of storage water for Twin Falls County and which is now working to "protect the interest of farmers if rehabilitation is needed in the American Falls Dam."

Spokesmen Differ in Their Voter Turnout Estimates

BOISE (AP) — Party spokesmen differed in their estimates of probable voter turnout in the primary election held August 2. The estimates ranged from a low of 40 percent to a high of 60 percent.

The balloting is Tuesday, Aug. 2. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Both Democratic State Chairman E. T. Waters and Republican Central Committee Executive Secretary Richard Hughes called August a bad month for an election, with many families vacationing.

Hughes described indicated voter interest as "only average at best" and predicted the turnout will be about the same as in the primary two years ago when there were 105,000.

"Waters was a bit more optimistic, predicting 125,000."

He said the balloting fact both parties have contests for governor and Congress will bring out more voters than in 1964.

The record for an Idaho nominating election was in 1952, when 148,470 votes.

The record election vote is 300,595, in the general election of 1960.

Getting top attention statewide are the races for governor, in both parties.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie, running for the Republican nomination for a fourth term, is elected by State Sen. Don Samuelson of Sandpoint. Reports indicate that the Democratic nomination for governor four years ago.

Both parties also have contests for one congressional nomination, but each party has an incumbent who is unopposed.

In the first District, Rep. Compton I. White of Clark Fork is running for a third term. His Republican opponent will be either State Sen. James McClure of Payette or Robert Currier of Caldwell.

Rep. George Hansen is unopposed for the Republican nomination in the Second District. His Democratic opponent will be A. W. Brunt of Idaho Falls, a former Democratic state chairman, or George Willmore of Rexburg, a helicopter pilot who served in the military.

Unopposed for nomination are two aspirants for United States Senator. Republican Sen. Len Jordan seeks election to a full term. His Democratic opponent, Dworski, also a Republican, the term of the late Henry C. Ralph Hardinger, a former representative in Congress, is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Both parties have only one contest each for nominations for the state offices, other than governor.

Republicans have a contest for lieutenant governor with State Sen. Jack Murphy of Shoshone and Shiner E. E. Clapp of Boise as the opponents.

On the Democratic side, L. E. Clapp of Boise, the incumbent by appointment, and Conley E. Ward of Caldwell are candidates for secretary of state.

Incumbents in other state offices are unopposed for party nominations. They are Lt. Gov. William E. Drewlow, State Auditor Joe R. Williams, Treasurer Marjorie Moon, and State Public Instruction D. R. Engleking, all Democrats, and Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard and State Inspector T. H. Hansen, both Republicans.

Challengers, unopposed for nomination, are Democrats F. M. Bistline, Pocatello, for attorney general, and W. Carl Griggs, Idaho Falls, for inspector, and Republicans Edson H. Deal, Nampa, secretary of state; George M. Fica, Boise, auditor; Joseph S. Smith, Boise, treasurer; and Frank W. Hirt, Montpelier, superintendent of public instruction.

Names of two justices of the State Supreme Court, both seeking re-election and both unopposed, will be on the non-partisan judicial ballot. They are Joseph J. McPadden of Hailey and Henry McQuade of Pocatello.

Supreme Court judges are elected on the primary, not the general, ballot.

More Union Strikes Will Inevitably Plague City Halls of United States

NEW YORK (AP) — In the first six months of this year, union hit the nation's city halls — labor's newest target — with at least 10 strikes. More are certain to come.

Nearly two-thirds of the strikes were by teachers, and the rest involved welfare workers, police, firefighters, doctors, nurses, hospital attendants, transit workers, and garbage collectors.

Some cities are so hit by strikes that they are forced to close down their city hall.

The scramble to organize the nation's municipal employees of the cities, counties, and school districts has been the fastest growing area of union activity. Union membership in the past two years has grown to more than 536,000.

The new militancy has put the unions on collision course with public officials, many of whom are in the midst of budget and tax-cutting crises of taxpayers. The experience of public officials in facing unions across the nation has been a rough going at times.

In Atlanta, Ga., where 500 firemen walked out for three days last week, the city was hit for higher wages and a shorter work week. Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said: "This apparently is going to be a summer of disruption on an outburst of disruption."

In Lansing, Mich., earlier this week, some 250 unskilled city employees went out on strike, including city hall workers, police, and firefighters. The city was hit for higher wages and a shorter work week. Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said: "This apparently is going to be a summer of disruption on an outburst of disruption."

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Sneezing June 14, 1966, was a sneeze for six weeks after her treatment with mild electric shocks, is gripped with periodic sneezes again.

"We're not too concerned," said her mother, Laverne Clark, said Sunday after June started sneezing every five to 10 minutes.

From January to May, the month she was sneezing every 15 to 30 seconds.

On June 17 she is scheduled to undergo more mild electric shocks.

How You May Never Take a Laxative Again!

New York, N.Y. (Special) — After 12 years' research, scientists have discovered a new, non-toxic substance that corrects constipation entirely without laxatives!

Doctors say most constipation occurs when waste loses moisture in the colon — becomes dry, hard, and difficult to move. To give relief, laxatives have to force action by flushing, irritating or distending the intestine.

The new miracle substance — known medically as, distycol — is a natural, non-toxic substance that corrects constipation entirely without laxatives!
